The purpose of the African American Student Association is to unify and promote the cultural heritage of African American people. This effort will be to define the interaction between the academic, social, and political lives of the Black students attending Oklahoma State University.