Become a part of:
Native Americans Resiliency through Education and Leadership Program

Join NARELP!

Purpose:
The purpose of NARELP is to promote the successful transition of incoming freshman and transfer students to the OSU community as well as promoting mentorship, leadership and community for all Native American students in order to build a stronger Native American community on and off campus.

Inclusion Center for Academic Excellence (ICAE)
011 Classroom Building
Stillwater, OK 74078

For more information contact:
Robin Williams
Coordinator of Native American Affairs
Phone: 405-744-0401
Fax: 405-744-5212
Email: Robin.starr.williams@okstate.edu
http://icae.okstate.edu/
Native Americans Resiliency through Education and Leadership Program

Objectives:
- Increase Native American student retention rates at OSU
- Increase the visibility of Native American students, faculty, and staff population to the greater OSU community
- Build a strong OSU Native American community
- Strengthen academic skills and leadership skills
- Learn to navigate through the OSU system
- Establish a cultural connection to the OSU Native American community and the tribal communities.

If you are interested in gaining support and resources to help you through your journey at OSU, join NARELP and gain a mentor, be a mentee, and meet new friends! Opportunities for scholarships are available through participation in the program.

“Education is your most powerful tool that you can give people. I don't care whether you’re Native or any person of color.” Ernestine Werelus, Shoshone-Bannock

We are currently seeking mentors (Juniors, Seniors and Graduate students) and mentees (Freshmen, Sophomores and Transfer students)!

Activities:
- Kickoff event
- Bi-weekly meetings for mentees/mentors
- Guest speakers
- Monthly social/cultural events
- Opportunity to earn points for a chance to win a scholarship